

Detail view

Introduction

Detail view is used to display properties and other related information about the node is selected in the tree view.

This information will vary depending on the type of node.

The information is divided into tabs, these is described in the below.

Property	Value
Business Unit	CapaInstaller
Enrollment date	12. januar 2009
Last check-in	12. januar 2009 11:19:50 (1785 days, 4 hours, 59 minutes ago)
Status	Active
State	Operational
Online status	N/A
Description
Primary user	AAN
Current user	AAN
IP address	10.20.1.112
Operating system	Windows Server (R) 2008 Standard x64
Device identifier (UUID)	41e1ed85-5511-4614-b9db-d42e14a1b0de
Serial Number	97HHG3J

Right click on info you want to copy to clipboard

Tab	Description
Details	This is the details of the device selected in the tree view.
Change log	This is the change log for the device selected in the tree view. Every change done to the device will be visible from here.
Inventory	Inventory is divided into 5 different categories. Hardware, Software, Updates, Logon and Custom. Inventory Management to learn more about the 5 different types of inventory.
Packages	View which packages is installed on a specific computer and the status and last run date on the packages.
Groups	View the groups an asset is member of.
Printers	View the Share name of a printer, the printer name and location.
Relations	View any relation to any other Asset.
Performance Guard	View data of the Utilization Index
Update approval	Displays the status of the selected update on the different Patch Management groups.